

Seventh Annual Federal Contracts Symposium

October 19-20, 2026 | Washington, DC

Ken Dodds

Executive Vice President and General Counsel
Coalition for Common Sense in Government
Procurement

Panel: Bid Protests | 3-3:30 pm

Ken Dodds is the Executive Vice President and General Counsel at the Coalition for Common Sense in Government Procurement, a nonprofit association representing more than 340 large, medium and small business concerns providing commercial products and services to the Federal Government.

Prior to joining the Coalition, he was a Vice President at Live Oak Bank and worked for more than 20 years at the U.S. Small Business Administration as the Senior Executive for Procurement Policy and a Senior Attorney in the Office of General Counsel.