

Matthew FergusonFederal Market Leader*
HaskellPanel: Federal Progressive Design Build (PDB) |
2:30 – 3 pm

Matt Ferguson leads Haskell's Federal Market and is responsible for overall day-to-day operations as well as growing the market. He oversees all federal pursuits and ongoing projects to ensure delivery of high-quality facilities safe, on time and within budget. Matt joined Haskell in 2019 bringing extensive federal design build experience on various project types including educational, recreational, operational, industrial, administrative and headquarter facilities.

Matt received his Bachelor of Science in Construction Management from California State University, Chico. He is a DBIA Design-Build Professional who is active in advancing positive change in the federal construction procurement and delivery methods, often participating in committees and events that advocate for change. Matt previously chaired the AGC San Diego/NAVFAC Committee, the AGC/NAVFAC National Committee Chair, the AGC/Federal-Heavy Division Vice Chair, and is currently on AGC of America Board of Directors and Chair of the Federal Heavy Division. Additionally, Matt regularly participates in Society of American Military Engineers and Design Build Institute of America events.

With over 30 years of federal design and construction experience, Matt has worked on multiple national award-winning projects receiving outstanding owner evaluations. He has a proven track record working with federal clients and end-users to deliver efficient, maintainable and reliable facilities.

Matt and his wife Lynn reside in Jacksonville, Florida and have two children. Their daughter Emily is a Proposal Specialist at an engineering firm in San Diego and son Sam is a Child Development Specialist in Los Angeles. Matt enjoys camping, hiking, reading, brewing beer, and spending time with his family.