Aaron handles complex family law cases often involving issues ranging from high value businesses and assets to contested adoptions and alternative reproductive issues.

Aaron also represents clients in their custody, (child and/or spousal) support, and equitable distribution cases, as well as the negotiation and preparation of prenuptial and post-nuptial agreements.

He also has extensive experience handling issues adjacent to traditional family law cases such as litigating real estate partition actions between unmarried parties and advising on the succession planning of small businesses.

Aaron is based in Fox Rothschild's Montgomery County office, but regularly handles cases in Philadelphia and the surrounding counties (Montgomery, Chester, Delaware, Bucks, Lancaster, and Berks) as well as other areas of the Commonwealth.

Appellate Practice

Aaron has successfully handled several appellate cases, including the published opinion:

- Bennett v. Bennett. Aaron successfully argued before the Superior Court to overturn the trial court's decision to divide a pension twenty-five years after the parties' executed a marital settlement agreement. The Superior Court's decision reaffirmed existing law regarding the enforceability of pre- and post-nuptial agreements.
