Ali is Co-Chair of both the Immigration practice and the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Services practice.

She represents companies and individuals in business immigration, employer compliance and EB-5 matters. She advises startups and established companies in connection with visa sponsorship of foreign nationals and permanent residency as well as counsels investors and entrepreneurs on securing visas or permanent residency. She also helps companies assess immigration compliance (Form I-9, E-Verify) and train relevant personnel on federal and state employer verification laws with particular focus in the hotel, restaurant, construction and gaming industries.

Ali regularly trains employers across the U.S. on I-9/E-Verify compliance practices, working with company leadership to complete proactive, internal I-9 audits and defending businesses when they are subjected to compliance audits by the Department of Homeland Security and Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

She routinely handles L-1, H-1B, H-2B, B-1, B-2, R, TN, I-1, E-2, E-3, EB-1C, PERM/EB-2, EB-5 and EB-1A visa status and permanent residency. She also handles I-526 petitions.

Additionally, she has lectured around the world and regularly educates developers, franchises and investors throughout the United States and in China on EB-5 regional center opportunities.

Before Fox Rothschild

Prior to joining Fox, Ali was an attorney at an international law firm where she was part of the EB-5 team and business immigration and compliance group and oversaw the firm's West Coast immigration practice. She was also the founder of her own firm, AB Immigration Law. Additionally, Ali worked at several Denver-based immigration boutiques, one of which where she launched the firm's immigration practice group.

Before being admitted to the practice of law, Ali was a legal intern for the Honorable Gregory W. Carman of the U.S. Court of International Trade and the Rocky Mountain Survivors Center and served as a research intern for Comisión Española de Ayuda al Refugiado.

During college, Ali served as a research intern for Comisión Española de Ayuda al Refugiado.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Ali is active in the Anti-Defamation League and was selected in 2021 to become a member of the group's National Commission. She also serves on the ADL's regional boards in Denver and Los Angeles and previously served as program chair of the ADL's 32nd Annual Governor's Holocaust Remembrance Program.

Ali is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), where she served for many years as Co-Chair of the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee for AILA Colorado. She is also a former member of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce in Metro Denver.
