Chad represents clients in a broad range of commercial real estate matters.

He has advised a wide variety of businesses, including restaurants and educational institutions, on the purchase and leasing of properties. He counsels automotive industry clients on all matters relating to real estate acquisitions, dispositions, and leasing, from the letter of intent stage through closing. Chad is also experienced in lien resolution and quiet title actions.

In addition, Chad handles corporate law matters, advising businesses on entity formation and registration, operating agreements, commercial contracts, shareholder disputes and financing issues.
