

Collin Ketelsleger

Associate

cketelsleger@foxrothschild.com

Oklahoma City, OK

Tel: 405.871.5577

Fax: 405.871.5601

Collin focuses his litigation practice on the energy and natural resources industries.

A former oil and gas production engineer, Collin brings to his practice a deep understanding of the industries and the legal challenges they face. He represents clients through all stages of the litigation process and counsels clients on strategies to mitigate future claims.

Services

- Litigation

Before Fox Rothschild

A former summer associate, Collin joined us full-time after graduating from law school.

He previously clerked for a boutique Oklahoma law firm. At the University of Oklahoma School of Law, he won American Jurisprudence Awards for Brief Writing, Oral Advocacy, Professional Responsibility, Secured Transactions, and Oil and Gas Contracts and Tax. Collin was also a Symposium Editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and Co-Founder of the OU Law Golf Club.

Collin was an oil and gas production engineer for several years before attending law school.

Bar Admissions

- Oklahoma

Education

- University of Oklahoma College of Law (J.D., 2025)
- University of Oklahoma (M.B.A., B.S., 2019)