Gabrielle is a member of the firm's Labor & Employment Department. She defends employers in matters involving single-plaintiff and complex class and representative actions against a large variety of employment claims, including claims of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wage and hour violations, wrongful termination and breach of contract. She has extensive experience litigating claims in both state and federal courts.

In addition to her litigation practice, Gabrielle counsels employers on various day-to-day employment matters, including employee discipline and terminations, internal investigations, workplace accommodations and best practices.

Gabrielle regularly assists employers in drafting policies, employee handbooks, and arbitration agreements to ensure compliance with state and federal law.
