A seasoned bankruptcy attorney, Howard has more than 20 years of experience in financial restructuring, bankruptcy and creditors' rights matters.

Howard represents debtors, official committees, ad hoc committees, equity sponsors, trustees, asset purchasers, lenders and trade creditors in bankruptcy proceedings. He also concentrates on the preparation and issuance of non-consolidation and other Delaware opinions, and advises troubled companies and their boards in insolvency situations. Further, Howard represents clients in bankruptcy avoidance litigation, including fraudulent transfer and preference litigation. As a result of his broad-based experience, Howard is able to develop creative and business-oriented solutions to achieve his clients' goals.

Howard's clients appreciate his advocacy, personal engagement and straightforward, practical advice. They regularly turn to him for counsel in connection with a variety of industries, including health care, retail, oil and gas, media, technology, transportation, manufacturing and real estate.
