For almost 30 years, Jacqueline has practiced exclusively all aspects of family and divorce law, including divorce and equitable distribution, spousal support and alimony, child support, child custody including grandparent and third party custody, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, and protection from abuse.

She regularly represents clients in the Philadelphia, Chester, Montgomery, Delaware and Bucks counties. Jacqueline was admitted to practice in 1990 and initially served as law clerk to the Honorable Ida K. Chen of the Family Court Division of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

Jacqueline is a skilled and strong advocate trusted by her clients to protect them and handle their cases with sensitivity and discretion. She is committed to educating her clients about family law issues and the process, to provide them with the tools they need to make informed and intelligent decisions for their futures within the confines of the law. She is known for “striking a balance between empathy and assertiveness to obtain desired outcomes for clients.” (Suburban Life Magazine, 2022 Five-Star Attorneys.)

Jacqueline is ranked in Band 1 for Family/Matrimonial Law in Pennsylvania in the 2022-2024 editions of Chambers and Partners' High Net Worth Guide. She is also listed in Best Lawyers in America. She has handled complex and high-value matters including involving private equity “carried interest” issues, international celebrity business interests, complex property valuations, and multimillion-dollar business interests in multiple industries.
