Jeff's dynamic commercial, corporate and securities law practice assists lenders, creditors and borrowers in a range of transactions and restructurings.

His representations include issues and strategies regarding

- Loan transactions
- Venture financings
- Asset acquisitions
- Restructurings
- Securities law compliance
- Entity formation

Jeff has particular experience representing lenders or other creditors in commercial loan transactions, debt restructurings and transactions involving Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. He has helped borrowers, major financial institutions and venture lenders acting as agents or lenders in connection with senior or subordinated secured credit facilities in the structuring and documentation of new transactions, the restructuring of existing transactions and the enforcement of their rights.
