Before Fox Rothschild

Jocelyn practiced at a regional firm prior to joining us. Before that, she served as associate legal counsel in the Office of Governor John C. Carney of Delaware.

While earning her law degree, Jocelyn served as an extern with the Health, Education and Legal Assistance Project, a law clerk for the Honorable Judge Bret Binder of the Chester County Court of Common Pleas, and a legal intern for a national health insurance provider.

Jocelyn co-founded and chaired the Transformative Culture Subcommittee, a section of the Delaware Law School Standing Committee for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. In this position, she assisted in the creation of the first ever strategic plan to focus on DEI issues at the Law School.
