Lauren is a skilled litigator who centers her practice on labor and employment disputes and construction litigation. She also has deep experience guiding individuals and families in estate litigation and guardianship matters.

Lauren is known for her hands-on approach and strong client communication. Whether guiding in-house counsel through complex employment disputes, advising business owners in litigation or as counsel in estate matters, she ensures that clients feel informed, supported and prepared at every stage of the process.

Employment

Lauren defends employers against discrimination claims, wage and hour disputes, and class actions under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, the Conscientious Employee Protection Act, and the Fair Labor Standards Act. She also provides employment counseling, training and policy guidance to help businesses navigate compliance challenges.

Construction

In the construction sector, Lauren represents developers, contractors, and design professionals in litigation involving construction defects, payment disputes, and lien claims. She advises on contract issues and ensures that clients comply with New Jersey's complex lien laws to secure proper payment.

Estate Litigation & Guardianship

Lauren's estate litigation practice focuses on will contests and guardianships. She assists families in navigating disputes over contested wills and represents individuals in guardianship proceedings, including court-appointed cases for incapacitated adults and young adults with disabilities.
