A highly experienced corporate and mergers and acquisitions lawyer, Marilyn finds strategic legal solutions to her clients' problems based on their specific business goals — saving them time and money.

Lauded for her responsiveness, Marilyn maintains clear and constant communications with her clients, guiding them through all stages of their corporate life. She works with public and private companies — including government contractors and cannabis businesses. Her practice includes advice on commercial contracts and corporate governance in addition to mergers & acquisitions.

Her experience extends to:

- Mergers and acquisitions.
- Restructurings and distressed company transactions.
- Joint ventures.
- Commercial contracts.
- Corporate governance.
- Early-stage capital raises.
- Corporate Transparency Act compliance.
- Transactions in the technology, manufacturing, medical device, cleaning services and cannabis industries, among others.
