

Meeren Amin

Partner

mamin@foxrothschild.com

Washington, DC

Tel: 202.794.1271

Fax: 202.461.3102

Meeren focuses his practice on tax planning and assisting businesses and individuals in finding solutions to complex tax controversies.

He is experienced at helping clients navigate through federal examinations, IRS tax appeals, and litigation in U.S. Tax Court, U.S. District Court, and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims. Meeren also advises clients on tax return positions and serves as a tax adviser to individuals, partnerships, S-corporations and C-corporations on tax planning matters.

Meeren handles matters involving conservation easements, the Employee Retention Tax Credit, captive insurance, Section 382 issues, cannabis law, partnership taxation, changes in accounting methods, bankruptcy, tax equity transactions, foreign information reporting and penalties, renewable energy credits, reasonable compensation, hobby loss, real estate transactions, research and development credits, exempt organization issues, ESOP planning, employment tax issues and promoter investigations.

Services

- Taxation & Wealth Planning
- Tax Controversy & Litigation
- Tax Residency Planning
- Family Offices
- Private Companies
- Cannabis Law
- Financial Restructuring & Bankruptcy
- Corporate

Before Fox Rothschild

Prior to joining Fox Rothschild, Meeren was a senior associate at a boutique tax law firm.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Meeren co-authored the "Captive Insurance Tax Controversy" chapter of the Captive Insurance Deskbook for the Business Lawyer. He also is a contributor to Tax Notes and Bloomberg.

Bar Admissions

- District of Columbia
- North Carolina

Court Admissions

- U.S. Tax Court
- U.S. Court of Federal Claims
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Missouri

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (LL.M. in Taxation, 2013)
- Wake Forest University School of Law (J.D., 2012)
- University of Miami (B.A., cum laude, 2009)