Morgan is seasoned appellate litigator and a Board Certified Specialist in State Criminal Law by the North Carolina State Bar. She centers her practice on appellate and trial advocacy, internal investigations and advising clients on tax and regulatory compliance matters.

She draws on nearly a decade of experience as prosecutor, first in the North Carolina state courts and later as an Assistant U.S. Attorney.

Morgan brings an informed perspective to criminal appeals and complex litigation. She has argued cases before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, authored and consulted on dozens of appellate briefs, and handled a wide range of post-conviction matters.

Her appellate work extends to commercial litigation, including complex business disputes, where her meticulous approach to legal strategy ensures her clients' positions are effectively represented.

Beyond the courtroom, Morgan guides businesses in conducting investigation and responding to allegations of internal wrongdoing. Harnessing her experience as a prosecutor, she can assist clients to mitigate risk, recover stolen assets, and respond strategically to regulators and legal authorities.
