Rob advises on a wide variety of corporate transactions. He has extensive experience with complex and multi-jurisdictional debt financings on behalf of commercial lenders and borrowers ranging from operating companies to investment funds.

He has handled fund-level and special purpose vehicle (SPV) indebtedness on behalf of new and existing private equity, private credit, real estate and hedge funds. He supports clients through open, closing and ongoing maintenance of inter-related subscription credit facilities, asset-based facilities, back leverage, securitizations and employee loan programs.

Rob has a practical, deal-side view of his clients' corporate finance matters informed by his background in public finance investment banking.

Rob works with local counsel on cross-border structures. On the leveraged finance side, he handles acquisition financings, asset-backed loans and restructurings, from diligence and commitment papers through closing.
