Bob focuses his practice in two key areas: real estate litigation and legal matters involving lawyers and law firms.

A commercial litigator, Bob places a particular emphasis on representing clients in real estate disputes, including title insurance matters.

He is also a lawyer's lawyer who handles various matters for lawyers and law firms, including professional responsibility matters, legal malpractice actions, defamation and First Amendment cases and claims of wrongful use of civil proceedings and abuse of process.

Bob is often hired to provide legal expert opinions in matters relating to legal ethics, professional responsibility issues, legal malpractice and real estate transactions and litigation. He represents lawyers before the Pennsylvania Disciplinary Board and the Pennsylvania Board of Bar Examiners, and he is currently the co-chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Guidance Committee.

A frequent speaker and author, Bob regularly presents seminars throughout Pennsylvania on professional responsibility, the avoidance of legal malpractice, the Dragonetti Act, quiet title and title insurance. He is a co-author of the book "Wrongful Use of Civil Proceedings and Related Torts in Pennsylvania," published by The Legal Intelligencer.

Bob has held numerous leadership positions within the firm. He currently co-chairs the Pro Bono Committee, and he serves on the Professional Responsibility Committee and the Accounts Receivable, Billing and Collections Committee. Bob previously served on the Summer Associate Coordinating Committee (former chair) and the Recruitment Committee.
