Before Fox Rothschild

Prior to joining Fox Rothschild, Selene was an associate at a Florida litigation defense firm. Before that, she held a summer associate position at a boutique business law firm.

Selene earned her law degree with a concentration in litigation and alternative dispute resolution from the University of Miami School of Law. While in law school, Selene was a Dean's Merit Scholar, recognized as the top student in her Litigation Skills program section, and received the Grey Quill Outstanding Writing Award and a Dean's Certificate for her writing, analytical and research skills. Selene also served as managing editor of the University of Miami Inter-American Law Review, vice president of the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board and a student attorney in the Investor Rights Clinic. Additionally, Selene was a member of the Bar & Gavel Honor Society and the Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division.

Beyond Fox Rothschild

Selene was selected to the 2026 LCLD Pathfinders, which provides early-career attorneys with the opportunity to learn from legal industry leaders while gaining leadership skills and relationship-building resources. LCLD consists of 400 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are committed to creating an environment where all talent can thrive.
