Will provides a broad range of legal services to clients in the automotive industry.

A former dealership owner and operator, Will is intimately familiar with the business issues his clients face. He provides legal counsel for transactions, dealer acquisitions and sales, and the sale, purchase and lease of commercial real estate. Will is skilled at helping his clients close deals while protecting their interests.

He also has litigation experience and has defended insurance companies and their insureds, as well as large, self-insured businesses, in personal injury, labor law and products liability cases.
